Qualifications: It is a requirement of this role to complete and pass statutory legal training for IASS services as part of the probationary period.

Purpose: The SEND Information Advice and Support Service provides an impartial, confidential, and free service to children and young people with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) and their parents, in Southampton.

This role will contribute to development and delivery of the service in accordance with the requirements of the Children's and Families Act 2014.

Main tasks: To provide impartial, confidential, and accessible information, advice and support to children and young people (0-25) with SEND and their parents/carers, supporting and empowering them to make informed decisions and resolve disagreements about any aspect of their special educational need or disability including education, health and care.

To work within the service offer and maintain professional boundaries in order to meet the overall demand on the service.

Mediate and facilitate dispute resolution between parents, young people and other parties to resolve misunderstandings and reduce complaints and escalation to external arbitration services.

Establish links to professionals working with harder to reach parent carers and young people to ensure they can access the service when needed.

Within the Southampton Information, Advice and Support team, ensure cover is provided to maintain a high level of service to families, within agreed service level agreements.

To attend, and participate positively in regular team meetings, offering solution focussed input to discussions.

Actively promote the SENDIASS service in all interactions with families and professionals.

To carry out any other duties that are within the scope, spirit and purpose of the position as required.

Our Values – Why they are so important

We are dedicated to making a positive impact for disabled people and their families in the communities we serve. Our focus is always on the children and young people we support, as well as their families, our employees and volunteers. Our Values are essential in providing a moral compass that guides actions and decisions, creating a shared culture, establishing trust, driving strategic direction, and infusing the organisation with meaning and purpose.

Values Framework Summary

Our Values:

Our five values have clear descriptions and identified behaviours that demonstrate what they look like in practice.

We are Trustworthy

We build trust with the children, young people and families we support – as well as our partners - by being dependable, reliable, and accountable in all that we do.

We are Kind

We understand and value the unique needs of the people that we support. Providing care and support with compassion and empathy.

We are Open & Honest

We foster an honest and open-minded culture and are transparent in both our decision making and communication.

We are Forward Thinking

We are committed to providing the highest quality of care, constantly seeking new, collaborative, and creative ways to deliver our services– encouraging everyone to be ambitious and to achieve their goals.

We are Professional

Flexible and agile in our approach, we uphold the highest professional standards to meet the needs of our children, young people, and their families.

The behaviours are split into three levels which are intended to be relevant and consistent throughout various roles within Rose Road.
